

Scout Trails

Refreshments were served by three of the troop committee members, Mrs. Cathrine Williams, Mrs. Patricia Pappas, and Sheldon Pettit.

The troop is sponsored by the Kiwanians of Gardens. Senior Scout Troop 1277 held a farewell party for their co-leader, Mrs. Madell Holmes, Nov. 12. The Hawaiian theme was carried out and the girls had made leis and posters. They had also baked a cake and decorated it in the farewell motif.

A table cloth and matching napkins were presented to the honoree. After the party the girls enjoyed roller skating. Mrs. Peggy Ball is leader and the new co-leader is Mrs. Clifford Enright.

On Nov. 11, Veterans Day, an outing that included a visit to Firehouse No. 38 in Wilmington and the Cabrillo Beach and Museum was the order of the day for Brownie Troop No. 1588, who are sponsored by Seaside Elementary School.

The young Scouts were taken on a tour of the firehouse by the captain and the acting captain. They rang the sirens to get the full effect of the engines in action.

Cabrillo Beach and the museum were next on the itinerary. After viewing the exhibits and asking as well as answering questions for Captain A. D. Olguine, the girls collected sea shells on the beach and returned to the museum to compare their finds with the marine collection.

A nosebag lunch on the sands climaxed the day for the girls and their Leaders, Mesdames Robert Lusian and Arthur Haley. Mesdames George Stoeckel and R. E. Evans also accompanied the Brownies.

Girl Scout troop 867, sponsored by the Perry PTA, held a court of award and an investiture of new scouts in a candlelight ceremony.

Girls invested were Betty Brown, Linda Brown, Celia Stinger, Susie White, Patty Chace, Cheryl Weaver, Sharon Martin, Carolyn London, Carol Selgel and Sandy Ray. Fourteen girls received their second class awards and two girls received proficiency badges: Donita Warner, foot traveler and Sally Robinson, potter.

After the ceremony refreshments were served with the cake decorated with the scout insignia.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Woodman and co-leader Mrs. George Crabtree, Brownie Troop 286 had its first cook-out at Torrance Park on Saturday.

Various duties were performed by the girls, including table decorating, table setting, cooking and cleaning up.

Their menu consisted of roast hot dogs, potato chips, carrot sticks, and for dessert, they roasted marshmallows and made cookies consisting of the roasted marshmallows, chocolate and graham crackers. After lunch various games were played.

The leaders were assisted by two of the mothers, Mrs. John McGuire and Mrs. Floyd De Vore.
